

David Kirk, DNK

UC Health needs innovative architectural design solutions when creating new or renovating existing clinical and office space areas.

DNK has provided the vision behind a number of UC Health projects, including the Surgical Intensive Care Unit expansion. DNK created a plan that helped increase the SICU's physical space and added bed capacity. DNK is a certified minority-owned business based in Greater Cincinnati.

To learn more about this company, please visit www.dnkarchitects.com